Students from Allen County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Allen County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 44 students from Allen County:

- 23 undergraduate
- 21 graduate

KU students from Allen County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $150,644 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 26 Allen County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $68,202 in Pell and other federal grants
- $11,198 in institutional grants
- $46,244 in institutional scholarships
- $9,000 in state scholarships and grants
- $16,000 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Allen County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 21 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 6 students in the School of Medicine
- 5 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 4 students in the School of Engineering
- 3 students in the School of Business
- 3 students in the School of Education
- 1 student in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Allen County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Allen County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

What high schools did they attend?

- Iola Senior High School in Iola - 34 students
- Humboldt High School in Humboldt - 3 students
- Marmaton Valley High School in Moran - 2 students

Allen County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,

507 have transfer credit from Allen County Community College in Iola.

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Allen County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Anderson County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Anderson County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 26 students from Anderson County:

- 16 undergraduate
- 10 graduate

KU students from Anderson County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $49,427 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 13 Anderson County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $20,904 in Pell and other federal grants
- $8,074 in institutional grants
- $8,350 in institutional scholarships
- $3,654 in state scholarships and grants
- $6,600 in outside or private scholarships and grants
- $1,845 in fellowships

Anderson County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 11 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 4 students in the School of Education
- 4 students in the School of Engineering
- 2 students in the School of Medicine
- 2 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 1 student in the School of Nursing
- 1 student in the School of Social Welfare

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Anderson County; some students included in more than one county report. Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence. Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Anderson County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

What high schools did they attend?

- Anderson County High School in Garnett - 18 students
- Crest Senior High School in Colony - 1 student

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Anderson County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Atchison County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Atchison County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 73 students from Atchison County:

• 49 undergraduate
• 24 graduate

KU students from Atchison County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $258,875 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 32 Atchison County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

• $82,320 in Pell and other federal grants
• $38,712 in institutional grants
• $119,703 in institutional scholarships
• $14,140 in state scholarships and grants
• $4,000 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Atchison County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

• 39 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
• 11 students in the School of Engineering
• 6 students in the School of Medicine
• 3 students in the School of Education
• 3 students in the School of Health Professions
• 2 students in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning
• 2 students in the School of Law
• 2 students in the School of Pharmacy

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Atchison County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Atchison County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 1 student in the School of Business
- 1 student in the School of Music
- 1 student in the School of Nursing

What high schools did they attend?

- Atchison High School in Atchison - 22 students
- Maur Hill -Mount Academy in Atchison - 17 students
- Atchison County Community HS in Effingham - 12 students

Atchison County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,

- 133 have transfer credit from Benedictine College in Atchison.
- 1 has transfer credit from Northeast Kansas Technical Col in Atchison.

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Atchison County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Barber County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Barber County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 12 students from Barber County:

- 6 undergraduate
- 6 graduate

KU students from Barber County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $10,504 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to Barber County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $1,904 in institutional grants
- $7,300 in institutional scholarships
- $1,300 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Barber County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 6 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 3 students in the School of Medicine
- 2 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 1 student in the School of Engineering

What high schools did they attend?

- Medicine Lodge High School in Medicine Lodge - 8 students
- South Barber High School in Kiowa - 1 student

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Barber County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Barton County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Barton County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 96 students from Barton County:

- 59 undergraduate
- 37 graduate

KU students from Barton County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $354,794 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 51 Barton County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $82,965 in Pell and other federal grants
- $61,776 in institutional grants
- $124,812 in institutional scholarships
- $16,649 in state scholarships and grants
- $68,592 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Barton County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 36 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 12 students in the School of Engineering
- 12 students in the School of Medicine
- 10 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 7 students in the School of Social Welfare
- 6 students in the School of Business
- 4 students in the School of Education
- 3 students in the School of Law

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Barton County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Barton County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 2 students in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
- 2 students in the School of Nursing

What high schools did they attend?

- Great Bend High School in Great Bend - 61 students
- Ellinwood High School in Ellinwood - 8 students
- Central Plains High School in Claflin - 7 students
- Hoisington High School in Hoisington - 4 students

Barton County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,

1,418 have transfer credit from Barton County Community Coll in Great Bend.

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Barton County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Bourbon County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Bourbon County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 41 students from Bourbon County:

- 33 undergraduate
- 8 graduate

KU students from Bourbon County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $154,682 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 26 Bourbon County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $48,966 in Pell and other federal grants
- $25,240 in institutional grants
- $44,635 in institutional scholarships
- $2,000 in state scholarships and grants
- $23,837 in outside or private scholarships and grants
- $10,003 in athletic grants

Bourbon County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 20 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 4 students in the School of Engineering
- 3 students in the School of Business
- 3 students in the School of Nursing
- 3 students in the School of Social Welfare
- 2 students in the School of Education
- 2 students in the School of Pharmacy

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Bourbon County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Bourbon County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 1 student in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
- 1 student in the School of Medicine

What high schools did they attend?

- Fort Scott High School in Ft Scott - 33 students
- Uniontown High School in Uniontown - 3 students

Bourbon County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,

232 have transfer credit from Ft Scott Community College in Ft Scott.

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Bourbon County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Brown County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Brown County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 36 students from Brown County:

- 26 undergraduate
- 10 graduate

KU students from Brown County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $152,294 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 21 Brown County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $43,488 in Pell and other federal grants
- $23,254 in institutional grants
- $45,602 in institutional scholarships
- $7,700 in state scholarships and grants
- $32,250 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Brown County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 17 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 3 students in the School of Business
- 3 students in the School of Education
- 3 students in the School of Engineering
- 3 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 3 students in the School of Social Welfare
- 2 students in the School of Medicine
- 1 student in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Brown County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
What high schools did they attend?

- Hiawatha High School in Hiawatha - 20 students
- Horton High School in Horton - 11 students
Students from Butler County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Butler County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 401 students from Butler County:

- 345 undergraduate
- 56 graduate

KU students from Butler County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $926,882 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 187 Butler County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $271,205 in Pell and other federal grants
- $103,724 in institutional grants
- $395,017 in institutional scholarships
- $38,590 in state scholarships and grants
- $82,576 in outside or private scholarships and grants
- $35,770 in athletic grants

Butler County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 208 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 52 students in the School of Engineering
- 35 students in the School of Business
- 19 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 18 students in the School of Medicine
- 15 students in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
- 12 students in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Butler County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Butler County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 12 students in the School of Education
- 12 students in the School of Nursing
- 7 students in the School of Health Professions
- 6 students in the School of Law
- 5 students in the School of Music
- 5 students in the School of Social Welfare

What high schools did they attend?

- Andover High School in Andover - 133 students
- Andover Central High School in Andover - 89 students
- Augusta High School in Augusta - 42 students
- Rose Hill High School in Rose Hill - 26 students
- Circle High School in Towanda - 17 students
- El Dorado High School in El Dorado - 16 students
- Douglass High School in Douglass - 10 students
- Bluestem High School in Leon - 8 students
- Frederic Remington High School in Whitewater - 5 students
- Berean Academy in Elbing - 2 students
- Andover Academy in Andover - 1 student

Butler County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,
929 have transfer credit from Butler Community College KS in El Dorado.

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Butler County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Chase County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Chase County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 4 students from Chase County:

- 4 undergraduate

KU students from Chase County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $7,780 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to Chase County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $5,680 in Pell and other federal grants
- $1,000 in institutional scholarships
- $1,100 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Chase County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 2 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 1 student in the School of Business
- 1 student in the School of Engineering

What high schools did they attend?

- Chase County High School in Cottonwood Falls - 3 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Chase County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Chautauqua County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Chautauqua County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 3 students from Chautauqua County:

- 3 undergraduate

KU students from Chautauqua County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $14,010 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to Chautauqua County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $12,010 in Pell and other federal grants
- $2,000 in state scholarships and grants

Chautauqua County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 3 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences

What high schools did they attend?

- Sedan Senior High School in Sedan - 3 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Chautauqua County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Cherokee County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Cherokee County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 37 students from Cherokee County:

- 28 undergraduate
- 9 graduate

KU students from Cherokee County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $206,310 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 29 Cherokee County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $85,740 in Pell and other federal grants
- $22,844 in institutional grants
- $66,748 in institutional scholarships
- $11,000 in state scholarships and grants
- $19,978 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Cherokee County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 23 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 4 students in the School of Social Welfare
- 3 students in the School of Medicine
- 2 students in the School of Business
- 2 students in the School of Education
- 2 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 1 student in the School of Health Professions
- 1 student in the School of Law

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Cherokee County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Cherokee County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 1 student in the School of Nursing

What high schools did they attend?

- Riverton High School in Riverton - 8 students
- Columbus Unified High School in Columbus - 7 students
- Baxter Springs High School in Baxter Springs - 6 students
- Galena High School in Galena - 4 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Cherokee County; some students included in more than one county report. Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence. Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Cheyenne County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Cheyenne County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 10 students from Cheyenne County:

- 8 undergraduate
- 2 graduate

KU students from Cheyenne County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $16,260 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to Cheyenne County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $3,800 in institutional grants
- $10,000 in institutional scholarships
- $2,460 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Cheyenne County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 4 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 1 student in the School of Business
- 1 student in the School of Education
- 1 student in the School of Engineering
- 1 student in the School of Health Professions
- 1 student in the School of Medicine
- 1 student in the School of Pharmacy

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Cheyenne County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Cheyenne County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

What high schools did they attend?

- St Francis High School in St Francis - 10 students
Students from Clark County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Clark County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 3 students from Clark County:

- 2 undergraduate
- 1 graduate

KU students from Clark County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $41,154 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to Clark County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $5,180 in Pell and other federal grants
- $29,974 in institutional scholarships
- $1,000 in state scholarships and grants
- $5,000 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Clark County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 1 student in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 1 student in the School of Education
- 1 student in the School of Engineering

What high schools did they attend?

- Ashland High School in Ashland - 3 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Clark County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Clay County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Clay County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 23 students from Clay County:

- 14 undergraduate
- 9 graduate

KU students from Clay County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $89,433 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 13 Clay County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $23,620 in Pell and other federal grants
- $5,800 in institutional grants
- $51,763 in institutional scholarships
- $7,000 in state scholarships and grants
- $1,250 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Clay County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 7 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 5 students in the School of Medicine
- 4 students in the School of Engineering
- 2 students in the School of Music
- 2 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 1 student in the School of Education
- 1 student in the School of Nursing
- 1 student in the School of Social Welfare

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Clay County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Clay County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

What high schools did they attend?

- Clay Center Community High Sch in Clay Center - 12 students
- Wakefield High School in Wakefield - 3 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Clay County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Cloud County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Cloud County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 31 students from Cloud County:

- 16 undergraduate
- 15 graduate

KU students from Cloud County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $101,304 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 13 Cloud County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $35,210 in Pell and other federal grants
- $8,020 in institutional grants
- $43,874 in institutional scholarships
- $5,000 in state scholarships and grants
- $9,200 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Cloud County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 11 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 5 students in the School of Medicine
- 5 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 2 students in the School of Business
- 2 students in the School of Social Welfare
- 1 student in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning
- 1 student in the School of Education
- 1 student in the School of Engineering

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Cloud County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Cloud County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 1 student in the School of Health Professions
- 1 student in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications

What high schools did they attend?

- Concordia High School in Concordia - 17 students
- Clifton-Clyde High School in Clyde - 2 students
- Miltonvale High School in Miltonvale - 1 student

Cloud County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,

276 have transfer credit from Cloud County Community College in Concordia.
Students from Coffey County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Coffey County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 52 students from Coffey County:

- 33 undergraduate
- 19 graduate

KU students from Coffey County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $158,803 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 30 Coffey County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $30,460 in Pell and other federal grants
- $14,824 in institutional grants
- $82,454 in institutional scholarships
- $3,000 in state scholarships and grants
- $28,065 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Coffey County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 26 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 6 students in the School of Engineering
- 4 students in the School of Business
- 4 students in the School of Health Professions
- 4 students in the School of Medicine
- 3 students in the School of Education
- 3 students in the School of Nursing
- 1 student in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Coffey County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Coffey County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 1 student in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
- 1 student in the School of Law
- 1 student in the School of Social Welfare

What high schools did they attend?

- Burlington High School in Burlington - 25 students
- Lebo High School in Lebo - 11 students
- Southern Coffey County H S in Le Roy - 4 students
- Waverly High School in Waverly - 4 students
- Le Roy High School in Le Roy - 1 student

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Coffey County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
KU welcomes students from Comanche County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 3 students from Comanche County:

- 2 undergraduate
- 1 graduate

KU students from Comanche County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $27,315 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to Comanche County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $6,330 in Pell and other federal grants
- $19,985 in institutional grants
- $1,000 in state scholarships and grants

Comanche County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 2 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 1 student in the School of Law

What high schools did they attend?

- South Central High School in Coldwater - 2 students
Students from Cowley County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Cowley County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 59 students from Cowley County:

- 40 undergraduate
- 19 graduate

KU students from Cowley County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $153,306 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 35 Cowley County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $51,488 in Pell and other federal grants
- $14,948 in institutional grants
- $46,263 in institutional scholarships
- $7,500 in state scholarships and grants
- $33,107 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Cowley County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 35 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 7 students in the School of Medicine
- 4 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 3 students in the School of Education
- 2 students in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning
- 2 students in the School of Engineering
- 2 students in the School of Music
- 2 students in the School of Nursing

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Cowley County; some students included in more than one county report. Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence. Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Cowley County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 1 student in the School of Business
- 1 student in the School of Health Professions
- 1 student in the School of Law

What high schools did they attend?

- Winfield High School in Winfield - 33 students
- Arkansas City High School in Arkansas City - 11 students
- Udall High School in Udall - 3 students
- Central Jr-Sr High School in Burden - 2 students
- Ark City Christian Academy in Arkansas City - 1 student

Cowley County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,

- 186 have transfer credit from Cowley County Community Coll in Arkansas City.
- 42 have transfer credit from Southwestern College KS in Winfield.

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Cowley County; some students included in more than one county report.

Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.

Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.

Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Crawford County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Crawford County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 109 students from Crawford County:

- 55 undergraduate
- 54 graduate

KU students from Crawford County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $359,713 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 58 Crawford County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $84,603 in Pell and other federal grants
- $39,938 in institutional grants
- $124,469 in institutional scholarships
- $11,963 in state scholarships and grants
- $98,741 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Crawford County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 32 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 18 students in the School of Medicine
- 11 students in the School of Engineering
- 11 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 9 students in the School of Education
- 8 students in the School of Social Welfare
- 6 students in the School of Business
- 6 students in the School of Health Professions

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Crawford County; some students included in more than one county report. Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence. Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Crawford County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

• 4 students in the School of Nursing
• 3 students in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning

What high schools did they attend?

• Pittsburg High School in Pittsburg - 32 students
• St Mary’s-Colgan High School in Pittsburg - 21 students
• Girard High School in Girard - 11 students
• Frontenac Jr-Sr High School in Frontenac - 4 students
• Northeast High School in Arma - 2 students
• Southeast High School in Cherokee - 2 students
• Covenant Harvest School in Pittsburg - 1 student

Crawford County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,
   262 have transfer credit from Pittsburg State University in Pittsburg.

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Crawford County; some students included in more than one county report. Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence. Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
KU welcomes students from Decatur County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 3 students from Decatur County:

- 1 undergraduate
- 2 graduate

KU students from Decatur County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $22,300 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to Decatur County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $1,800 in institutional grants
- $20,500 in institutional scholarships

Decatur County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 1 student in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 1 student in the School of Medicine
- 1 student in the School of Pharmacy

What high schools did they attend?

- Decatur Community High School in Oberlin - 2 students
Students from Dickinson County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Dickinson County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 55 students from Dickinson County:

• 38 undergraduate
• 17 graduate

KU students from Dickinson County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $181,379 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 32 Dickinson County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

• $53,598 in Pell and other federal grants
• $25,088 in institutional grants
• $61,857 in institutional scholarships
• $14,185 in state scholarships and grants
• $26,650 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Dickinson County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

• 24 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
• 7 students in the School of Education
• 6 students in the School of Medicine
• 4 students in the School of Nursing
• 3 students in the School of Engineering
• 3 students in the School of Social Welfare
• 2 students in the School of Music
• 1 student in the School of Business

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Dickinson County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Dickinson County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

• 1 student in the School of Health Professions
• 1 student in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
• 1 student in the School of Pharmacy

What high schools did they attend?

• Abilene High School in Abilene - 28 students
• Herington High School in Herington - 8 students
• Chapman High School in Chapman - 6 students
• Solomon High School in Solomon - 2 students
Students from Doniphan County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Doniphan County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 16 students from Doniphan County:

- 12 undergraduate
- 4 graduate

KU students from Doniphan County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $38,310 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 8 Doniphan County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $8,310 in Pell and other federal grants
- $3,800 in institutional grants
- $16,400 in institutional scholarships
- $1,000 in state scholarships and grants
- $8,800 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Doniphan County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 8 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 2 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 1 student in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning
- 1 student in the School of Education
- 1 student in the School of Health Professions
- 1 student in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
- 1 student in the School of Social Welfare

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Doniphan County; some students included in more than one county report. Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence. Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Doniphan County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

What high schools did they attend?

- Doniphan West High School in Highland - 4 students
- Troy High School in Troy - 4 students
- Riverside High School in Wathena - 2 students

Doniphan County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,

479 have transfer credit from Highland Community College KS in Highland.
Students from Douglas County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Douglas County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 2,060 students from Douglas County:

- 1,477 undergraduate
- 583 graduate

KU students from Douglas County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $4,935,666 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 975 Douglas County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $2,106,108 in Pell and other federal grants
- $564,638 in institutional grants
- $1,705,030 in institutional scholarships
- $274,645 in state scholarships and grants
- $171,271 in outside or private scholarships and grants
- $64,713 in fellowships
- $49,261 in athletic grants

Douglas County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 1,069 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 217 students in the School of Engineering
- 173 students in the School of Education
- 120 students in the School of Business
- 66 students in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning
- 66 students in the School of Social Welfare

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Douglas County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Douglas County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 58 students in the School of Medicine
- 58 students in the School of Nursing
- 51 students in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
- 46 students in the School of Music
- 31 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 23 students in the School of Health Professions
- 20 students in the School of Law

What high schools did they attend?

- Lawrence Free State High Sch in Lawrence - 554 students
- Lawrence High School in Lawrence - 486 students
- Baldwin High School in Baldwin City - 77 students
- Eudora High School in Eudora - 76 students
- Bishop Seabury Academy in Lawrence - 33 students
- Veritas Christian School in Lawrence - 8 students
- Lawrence Virtual High School in Lawrence - 2 students

Douglas County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,
- 342 have transfer credit from Baker University in Baldwin City.
- 65 have transfer credit from Haskell Indian Nations Univ in Lawrence.
- 5 have transfer credit from Pinnacle Career Institute in Lawrence.

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Douglas County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Edwards County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Edwards County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 5 students from Edwards County:

- 1 undergraduate
- 4 graduate

KU students from Edwards County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $12,230 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to Edwards County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $4,780 in Pell and other federal grants
- $1,800 in institutional grants
- $2,800 in institutional scholarships
- $2,850 in state scholarships and grants

Edwards County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 2 students in the School of Medicine
- 1 student in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 1 student in the School of Engineering
- 1 student in the School of Law

What high schools did they attend?

- Kinsley High School in Kinsley - 3 students
- Lewis High School in Lewis - 1 student

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Edwards County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Edwards County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Edwards County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Elk County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Elk County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 4 students from Elk County:

• 4 undergraduate

KU students from Elk County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $15,040 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to Elk County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

• $12,540 in Pell and other federal grants
• $2,000 in state scholarships and grants

Elk County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

• 3 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
• 1 student in the School of Engineering

What high schools did they attend?

• West Elk Jr-Sr High School in Howard - 2 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Elk County; some students included in more than one county report. Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence. Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
KU welcomes students from Ellis County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 127 students from Ellis County:

- 80 undergraduate
- 47 graduate

KU students from Ellis County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $478,007 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 74 Ellis County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $91,267 in Pell and other federal grants
- $64,975 in institutional grants
- $232,289 in institutional scholarships
- $8,017 in state scholarships and grants
- $75,797 in outside or private scholarships and grants
- $5,663 in athletic grants

Ellis County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 53 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 12 students in the School of Engineering
- 11 students in the School of Medicine
- 10 students in the School of Education
- 9 students in the School of Business
- 9 students in the School of Social Welfare
- 7 students in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Ellis County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Ellis County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 7 students in the School of Nursing
- 4 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 3 students in the School of Health Professions
- 3 students in the School of Music
- 2 students in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning
- 2 students in the School of Law

What high schools did they attend?

- Hays High School in Hays - 52 students
- Thomas More Prep-Marian HS in Hays - 25 students
- Victoria High School in Victoria - 6 students
- Ellis High School in Ellis - 5 students

Ellis County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,

269 have transfer credit from Fort Hays State University in Hays.
1 has transfer credit from FORT HAYS STATE UNIVERSITY in Hays.
KU welcomes students from Ellsworth County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 24 students from Ellsworth County:

- 18 undergraduate
- 6 graduate

KU students from Ellsworth County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $78,064 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 16 Ellsworth County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $22,840 in Pell and other federal grants
- $11,424 in institutional grants
- $39,300 in institutional scholarships
- $3,000 in state scholarships and grants
- $1,500 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Ellsworth County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 8 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 4 students in the School of Education
- 3 students in the School of Engineering
- 3 students in the School of Medicine
- 1 student in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning
- 1 student in the School of Business
- 1 student in the School of Health Professions
- 1 student in the School of Law

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Ellsworth County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Ellsworth County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 1 student in the School of Pharmacy
- 1 student in the School of Social Welfare

What high schools did they attend?

- Ellsworth High School in Ellsworth - 19 students
- Wilson High School in Wilson - 2 students
Students from Finney County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Finney County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 124 students from Finney County:

- 105 undergraduate
- 19 graduate

KU students from Finney County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $425,710 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 70 Finney County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $196,017 in Pell and other federal grants
- $61,064 in institutional grants
- $60,120 in institutional scholarships
- $31,353 in state scholarships and grants
- $74,214 in outside or private scholarships and grants
- $2,942 in athletic grants

Finney County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 70 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 12 students in the School of Education
- 7 students in the School of Engineering
- 7 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 6 students in the School of Medicine
- 5 students in the School of Health Professions
- 4 students in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
Students from Finney County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 4 students in the School of Nursing
- 3 students in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning
- 3 students in the School of Business
- 3 students in the School of Music
- 1 student in the School of Social Welfare

What high schools did they attend?

- Garden City Senior High School in Garden City - 106 students
- Holcomb High School in Holcomb - 7 students

Finney County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,
182 have transfer credit from Garden City Community College in Garden City.

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Finney County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Ford County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Ford County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 70 students from Ford County:

• 46 undergraduate
• 24 graduate

KU students from Ford County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $236,635 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 39 Ford County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

• $87,884 in Pell and other federal grants
• $23,638 in institutional grants
• $37,366 in institutional scholarships
• $18,200 in state scholarships and grants
• $69,547 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Ford County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

• 35 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
• 8 students in the School of Medicine
• 6 students in the School of Social Welfare
• 5 students in the School of Pharmacy
• 3 students in the School of Education
• 3 students in the School of Engineering
• 3 students in the School of Health Professions
• 3 students in the School of Nursing

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Ford County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Ford County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 1 student in the School of Business
- 1 student in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
- 1 student in the School of Law
- 1 student in the School of Music

What high schools did they attend?

- Dodge City Senior High School in Dodge City - 51 students
- Spearville High School in Spearville - 6 students
- Bucklin High School in Bucklin - 2 students

Ford County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,

128 have transfer credit from Dodge City Community College in Dodge City.
1 has transfer credit from St Mary of the Plains College in Dodge City.

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Ford County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Franklin County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Franklin County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 137 students from Franklin County:

• 114 undergraduate
• 23 graduate

KU students from Franklin County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $513,542 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 84 Franklin County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

• $242,308 in Pell and other federal grants
• $66,231 in institutional grants
• $148,503 in institutional scholarships
• $34,350 in state scholarships and grants
• $22,150 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Franklin County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

• 86 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
• 13 students in the School of Engineering
• 6 students in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning
• 6 students in the School of Business
• 6 students in the School of Education
• 4 students in the School of Medicine
• 4 students in the School of Social Welfare
• 3 students in the School of Pharmacy

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Franklin County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Franklin County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 2 students in the School of Health Professions
- 2 students in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
- 2 students in the School of Law
- 1 student in the School of Music
- 1 student in the School of Nursing

What high schools did they attend?

- Ottawa High School in Ottawa - 67 students
- Central Heights High School in Richmond - 14 students
- Wellsville Jr-Sr High School in Wellsville - 14 students
- West Franklin High School in Pomona - 9 students

Franklin County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,
82 have transfer credit from Ottawa University in Ottawa.

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Franklin County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Geary County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Geary County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 84 students from Geary County:

- 72 undergraduate
- 12 graduate

KU students from Geary County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $386,276 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 51 Geary County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $140,972 in Pell and other federal grants
- $50,920 in institutional grants
- $58,400 in institutional scholarships
- $19,504 in state scholarships and grants
- $97,376 in outside or private scholarships and grants
- $19,105 in athletic grants

Geary County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 51 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 7 students in the School of Engineering
- 4 students in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning
- 4 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 4 students in the School of Social Welfare
- 3 students in the School of Business
- 3 students in the School of Education

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Geary County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Geary County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 3 students in the School of Medicine
- 2 students in the School of Nursing
- 1 student in the School of Music

What high schools did they attend?

- Junction City Senior High Sch in Junction City - 61 students
- Saint Xavier High School in Junction City - 6 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Geary County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Gove County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Gove County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 10 students from Gove County:

- 3 undergraduate
- 7 graduate

KU students from Gove County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $21,750 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to Gove County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $9,000 in institutional scholarships
- $12,750 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Gove County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 3 students in the School of Medicine
- 2 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 2 students in the School of Engineering
- 2 students in the School of Nursing
- 1 student in the School of Business

What high schools did they attend?

- Quinter High School in Quinter - 7 students
- Grinnell High School in Grinnell - 1 student
- Wheatland High School in Grainfield - 1 student

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Gove County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Gove County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
KU welcomes students from Graham County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 4 students from Graham County:

- 2 undergraduate
- 2 graduate

KU students from Graham County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $47,880 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to Graham County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $7,060 in Pell and other federal grants
- $6,320 in institutional grants
- $30,000 in institutional scholarships
- $4,500 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Graham County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 3 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 1 student in the School of Medicine

What high schools did they attend?

- Hill City High School in Hill City - 3 students
Students from Grant County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Grant County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 16 students from Grant County:

- 13 undergraduate
- 3 graduate

KU students from Grant County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $35,460 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 8 Grant County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $7,510 in Pell and other federal grants
- $4,100 in institutional grants
- $13,700 in institutional scholarships
- $2,000 in state scholarships and grants
- $8,150 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Grant County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 9 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 2 students in the School of Education
- 2 students in the School of Engineering
- 1 student in the School of Nursing
- 1 student in the School of Pharmacy
- 1 student in the School of Social Welfare

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Grant County; some students included in more than one county report. Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence. Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Grant County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

What high schools did they attend?

- Ulysses High School in Ulysses - 14 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Grant County; some students included in more than one county report. Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence. Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Gray County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Gray County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 24 students from Gray County:

- 17 undergraduate
- 7 graduate

KU students from Gray County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $56,563 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 10 Gray County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $20,620 in Pell and other federal grants
- $11,940 in institutional grants
- $13,500 in institutional scholarships
- $5,853 in state scholarships and grants
- $4,650 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Gray County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 14 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 3 students in the School of Education
- 2 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 1 student in the School of Business
- 1 student in the School of Engineering
- 1 student in the School of Law
- 1 student in the School of Nursing
- 1 student in the School of Social Welfare

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Gray County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Gray County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

What high schools did they attend?

• Cimarron High School in Cimarron - 15 students
• Ingalls High School in Ingalls - 4 students
• South Gray High School in Montezuma - 4 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Gray County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Greeley County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Greeley County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 11 students from Greeley County:

- 9 undergraduate
- 2 graduate

KU students from Greeley County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $30,076 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 6 Greeley County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $17,520 in Pell and other federal grants
- $4,720 in institutional grants
- $4,000 in institutional scholarships
- $1,000 in state scholarships and grants
- $1,600 in outside or private scholarships and grants
- $1,236 in athletic grants

Greeley County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 4 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 3 students in the School of Education
- 3 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 1 student in the School of Business
Students from Greeley County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

What high schools did they attend?

- Greeley County High School in Tribune - 11 students
Students from Greenwood County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Greenwood County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 16 students from Greenwood County:

- 8 undergraduate
- 8 graduate

KU students from Greenwood County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $27,610 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 7 Greenwood County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $10,510 in Pell and other federal grants
- $1,800 in institutional grants
- $11,300 in institutional scholarships
- $4,000 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Greenwood County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 4 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 4 students in the School of Medicine
- 2 students in the School of Education
- 1 student in the School of Business
- 1 student in the School of Engineering
- 1 student in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
- 1 student in the School of Nursing
- 1 student in the School of Pharmacy
- 1 student in the School of Social Welfare
Students from Greenwood County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

What high schools did they attend?

- Eureka High School in Eureka - 6 students
- Madison High School in Madison - 4 students
- Hamilton High School in Hamilton - 1 student

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Greenwood County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Hamilton County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Hamilton County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 6 students from Hamilton County:

- 6 undergraduate

KU students from Hamilton County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $14,625 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 5 Hamilton County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $5,000 in institutional scholarships
- $9,625 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Hamilton County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 3 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 1 student in the School of Engineering
- 1 student in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
- 1 student in the School of Pharmacy

What high schools did they attend?

- Syracuse High School in Syracuse - 6 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Hamilton County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Harper County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Harper County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 12 students from Harper County:

- 5 undergraduate
- 7 graduate

KU students from Harper County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $73,006 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 8 Harper County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $13,705 in Pell and other federal grants
- $11,728 in institutional grants
- $44,073 in institutional scholarships
- $2,000 in state scholarships and grants
- $1,500 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Harper County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 3 students in the School of Medicine
- 3 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 2 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 1 student in the School of Business
- 1 student in the School of Education
- 1 student in the School of Engineering
- 1 student in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Harper County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Harper County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

What high schools did they attend?

- Chaparral High School in Anthony - 8 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Harper County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Harvey County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Harvey County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 119 students from Harvey County:

- 79 undergraduate
- 40 graduate

KU students from Harvey County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $426,625 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 68 Harvey County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $145,872 in Pell and other federal grants
- $65,426 in institutional grants
- $119,087 in institutional scholarships
- $23,868 in state scholarships and grants
- $72,372 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Harvey County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 50 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 14 students in the School of Medicine
- 11 students in the School of Engineering
- 10 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 8 students in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning
- 7 students in the School of Education
- 5 students in the School of Business
- 4 students in the School of Nursing

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Harvey County; some students included in more than one county report. Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence. Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Harvey County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 3 students in the School of Health Professions
- 3 students in the School of Law
- 3 students in the School of Social Welfare
- 2 students in the School of Music
- 1 student in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications

What high schools did they attend?

- Newton High School in Newton - 49 students
- Halstead High School in Halstead - 23 students
- Hesston High School in Hesston - 13 students
- Sedgwick High School in Sedgwick - 2 students
- Burrton High School in Burrton - 1 student

Harvey County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,

41 have transfer credit from Bethel College Kansas in North Newton.
11 have transfer credit from Hesston College in Hesston.
Students from Haskell County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Haskell County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 12 students from Haskell County:

- 8 undergraduate
- 4 graduate

KU students from Haskell County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $31,238 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 9 Haskell County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $3,480 in Pell and other federal grants
- $23,150 in institutional scholarships
- $1,000 in state scholarships and grants
- $3,400 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Haskell County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 6 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 2 students in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
- 2 students in the School of Medicine
- 1 student in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning
- 1 student in the School of Education
- 1 student in the School of Pharmacy

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Haskell County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Haskell County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

What high schools did they attend?

- Sublette High School in Sublette - 8 students
- Satanta Jr-Sr High School in Satanta - 3 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Haskell County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Hodgeman County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Hodgeman County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 6 students from Hodgeman County:

- 5 undergraduate
- 1 graduate

KU students from Hodgeman County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $24,468 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to Hodgeman County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $6,330 in Pell and other federal grants
- $3,874 in institutional grants
- $14,264 in institutional scholarships

Hodgeman County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 5 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 1 student in the School of Medicine

What high schools did they attend?

- Hodgeman County High School in Jetmore - 4 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Hodgeman County; some students included in more than one county report. Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence. Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Jackson County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Jackson County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 53 students from Jackson County:

- 34 undergraduate
- 19 graduate

KU students from Jackson County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $239,326 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 36 Jackson County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $66,820 in Pell and other federal grants
- $25,039 in institutional grants
- $114,351 in institutional scholarships
- $8,000 in state scholarships and grants
- $25,116 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Jackson County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 22 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 7 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 6 students in the School of Engineering
- 6 students in the School of Medicine
- 5 students in the School of Education
- 3 students in the School of Business
- 1 student in the School of Health Professions
Students from Jackson County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 1 student in the School of Law
- 1 student in the School of Music

What high schools did they attend?

- Royal Valley High School in Hoyt - 21 students
- Holton High School in Holton - 19 students
- Jackson Heights High School in Holton - 4 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Jackson County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Jefferson County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Jefferson County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 119 students from Jefferson County:

- 93 undergraduate
- 26 graduate

KU students from Jefferson County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $332,940 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 58 Jefferson County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $122,995 in Pell and other federal grants
- $46,948 in institutional grants
- $112,175 in institutional scholarships
- $19,722 in state scholarships and grants
- $31,100 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Jefferson County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 65 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 12 students in the School of Engineering
- 9 students in the School of Education
- 8 students in the School of Business
- 5 students in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
- 4 students in the School of Music
- 4 students in the School of Nursing
- 3 students in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Jefferson County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Jefferson County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

• 3 students in the School of Medicine
• 3 students in the School of Pharmacy
• 1 student in the School of Social Welfare

What high schools did they attend?

• Perry-Lecompton High School in Perry - 47 students
• Jefferson West High School in Meriden - 20 students
• Jefferson County North High Sc in Winchester - 11 students
• McLouth High School in McLouth - 9 students
• Valley Falls High School in Valley Falls - 7 students
• Oskaloosa High School in Oskaloosa - 6 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Jefferson County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Jewell County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Jewell County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 7 students from Jewell County:

- 7 undergraduate

KU students from Jewell County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $45,872 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 6 Jewell County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $6,940 in Pell and other federal grants
- $4,600 in institutional grants
- $27,000 in institutional scholarships
- $5,757 in state scholarships and grants
- $1,575 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Jewell County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 3 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 2 students in the School of Education
- 1 student in the School of Business
- 1 student in the School of Nursing

What high schools did they attend?

- Rock Hills High School in Mankato - 4 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Jewell County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Johnson County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Johnson County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 8,148 students from Johnson County:

- 6,347 undergraduate
- 1,801 graduate

KU students from Johnson County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $17,840,223 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 3,570 Johnson County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $5,683,861 in Pell and other federal grants
- $1,683,093 in institutional grants
- $8,364,614 in institutional scholarships
- $674,908 in state scholarships and grants
- $853,875 in outside or private scholarships and grants
- $195,550 in fellowships
- $384,321 in athletic grants

Johnson County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 4,133 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 961 students in the School of Engineering
- 781 students in the School of Business
- 423 students in the School of Education
- 422 students in the School of Medicine
- 286 students in the School of Nursing

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Johnson County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Johnson County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 283 students in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
- 244 students in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning
- 189 students in the School of Social Welfare
- 182 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 126 students in the School of Health Professions
- 90 students in the School of Law
- 88 students in the School of Music

What high schools did they attend?

- Shawnee Mission East High Sch in Prairie Village - 546 students
- Blue Valley Northwest High Sch in Overland Park - 534 students
- Blue Valley North High School in Overland Park - 498 students
- Olathe East High School in Olathe - 456 students
- Shawnee Mission Northwest H S in Shawnee Mission - 414 students
- Olathe Northwest High School in Olathe - 401 students
- Blue Valley West High School in Stilwell - 396 students
- Blue Valley High School in Stilwell - 351 students
- Olathe South High School in Olathe - 344 students
- Shawnee Mission West High Sch in Overland Park - 343 students
- Saint Thomas Aquinas High Sch in Overland Park - 337 students
- Shawnee Mission South High Sch in Shawnee Mission - 286 students
- Mill Valley High School in Shawnee - 235 students
- Olathe North High School in Olathe - 215 students
- Shawnee Mission North High Sch in Shawnee Mission - 203 students
- St James Academy in Lenexa - 146 students
- Bishop Miege High School in Shawnee Mission - 114 students
- De Soto High School in De Soto - 113 students
- Blue Valley Southwest High Sch in Overland Park - 104 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Johnson County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Johnson County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

• Gardner Edgerton High School in Gardner - 104 students
• Spring Hill High School in Spring Hill - 74 students
• Hyman Brand Hebrew Academy in Shawnee Mission - 19 students
• Kansas City Christian School in Prairie Village - 18 students
• Maranatha Academy in Shawnee - 16 students
• Insight School of Kansas in Olathe - 8 students
• Accelerated Schools-Kansas Cty in Overland Park - 6 students
• Midland Adventist School in Shawnee - 5 students
• Christ Preparatory Academy in Lenexa - 3 students
• Heritage Christian Academy in Olathe - 1 student
• Shawnee Mission Christian Schl in Westwood - 1 student
• St Joseph's High School in Shawnee - 1 student
• Step Up in Olathe - 1 student

Johnson County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,

6,486 have transfer credit from Johnson County Community Coll in Overland Park.
83 have transfer credit from Mid America Nazarene College in Olathe.
7 have transfer credit from Art Institute International KC in Lenexa.
5 have transfer credit from National American University in Overland Park.
4 have transfer credit from Cleveland Chiropractic College in Overland Park.
2 have transfer credit from Brown Mackie College in Lenexa.
2 have transfer credit from Midwestern College in Overland Park.
1 has transfer credit from Kansas City Coll & Bible Schl in Overland Park.
1 has transfer credit from Kansas College of Nursing in Shawnee.
1 has transfer credit from Wright Business School in Overland Park.

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Johnson County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
KU welcomes students from Kearny County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 5 students from Kearny County:

- 5 undergraduate

KU students from Kearny County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $14,055 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 5 Kearny County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $5,680 in Pell and other federal grants
- $8,000 in institutional scholarships

Kearny County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 2 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 1 student in the School of Business
- 1 student in the School of Education
- 1 student in the School of Engineering

What high schools did they attend?

- Lakin High School in Lakin - 5 students
Students from Kingman County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Kingman County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 27 students from Kingman County:

- 19 undergraduate
- 8 graduate

KU students from Kingman County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $135,717 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 17 Kingman County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $33,110 in Pell and other federal grants
- $17,794 in institutional grants
- $53,930 in institutional scholarships
- $5,000 in state scholarships and grants
- $9,050 in outside or private scholarships and grants
- $16,833 in athletic grants

Kingman County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 11 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 3 students in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning
- 3 students in the School of Education
- 3 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 2 students in the School of Business
- 1 student in the School of Engineering
- 1 student in the School of Health Professions

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Kingman County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Kingman County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 1 student in the School of Law
- 1 student in the School of Medicine
- 1 student in the School of Nursing

What high schools did they attend?

- Kingman High School in Kingman - 19 students
- Norwich High School in Norwich - 2 students
- Cunningham High School in Cunningham - 1 student

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Kingman County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Kiowa County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Kiowa County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 3 students from Kiowa County:

• 2 undergraduate
• 1 graduate

KU students from Kiowa County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $7,060 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to Kiowa County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

• $4,260 in Pell and other federal grants
• $1,800 in institutional grants
• $1,000 in state scholarships and grants

Kiowa County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

• 1 student in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
• 1 student in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
• 1 student in the School of Social Welfare

What high schools did they attend?

• Kiowa County High School in Greensburg - 1 student

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Kiowa County; some students included in more than one county report. Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence. Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Labette County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Labette County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 57 students from Labette County:

- 41 undergraduate
- 16 graduate

KU students from Labette County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $177,327 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 30 Labette County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $64,604 in Pell and other federal grants
- $21,568 in institutional grants
- $73,800 in institutional scholarships
- $8,855 in state scholarships and grants
- $8,500 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Labette County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 24 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 7 students in the School of Education
- 7 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 5 students in the School of Engineering
- 4 students in the School of Business
- 3 students in the School of Medicine
- 2 students in the School of Nursing
- 1 student in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Labette County; some students included in more than one county report. Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence. Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Labette County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 1 student in the School of Law
- 1 student in the School of Social Welfare

What high schools did they attend?

- Parsons Senior High School in Parsons - 29 students
- Labette County High School in Altamont - 16 students
- Chetopa High School in Chetopa - 1 student
- Oswego High School in Oswego - 1 student

Labette County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,

113 have transfer credit from Labette Community College in Parsons.
KU welcomes students from Lane County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 1 student from Lane County:

- 1 undergraduate

Lane County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 1 student in the School of Pharmacy
Students from Leavenworth County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Leavenworth County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 535 students from Leavenworth County:

- 420 undergraduate
- 115 graduate

KU students from Leavenworth County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $1,260,458 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 239 Leavenworth County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $495,749 in Pell and other federal grants
- $117,517 in institutional grants
- $378,631 in institutional scholarships
- $52,119 in state scholarships and grants
- $166,838 in outside or private scholarships and grants
- $5,000 in fellowships
- $44,605 in athletic grants

Leavenworth County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 282 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 66 students in the School of Engineering
- 43 students in the School of Business
- 28 students in the School of Nursing
- 25 students in the School of Education
- 15 students in the School of Social Welfare

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Leavenworth County; some students included in more than one county report. Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence. Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Leavenworth County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 12 students in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
- 12 students in the School of Medicine
- 10 students in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning
- 10 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 7 students in the School of Health Professions
- 7 students in the School of Music
- 2 students in the School of Law

What high schools did they attend?

- Lansing High School in Lansing - 123 students
- Basehor-Linwood High School in Basehor - 109 students
- Leavenworth Senior High School in Leavenworth - 102 students
- Tonganoxie High School in Tonganoxie - 42 students
- Pleasant Ridge High School in Easton - 22 students
- Immaculata High School in Leavenworth - 18 students

Leavenworth County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,

115 have transfer credit from University of Saint Mary in Leavenworth.
78 have transfer credit from AARTS Office US Army in Ft Leavenworth.
5 have transfer credit from US Army Comm & Gen Staff Coll in Fort Leavenworth.
1 has transfer credit from US Army Educ Center-Ft Lvnwrth in Fort Leavenworth.

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Leavenworth County; some students included in more than one county report. Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence. Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Lincoln County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Lincoln County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 5 students from Lincoln County:

- 3 undergraduate
- 2 graduate

KU students from Lincoln County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $19,558 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 5 Lincoln County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $3,860 in Pell and other federal grants
- $1,800 in institutional grants
- $8,053 in institutional scholarships
- $2,000 in state scholarships and grants
- $2,000 in outside or private scholarships and grants
- $1,845 in fellowships

Lincoln County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 3 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 1 student in the School of Education
- 1 student in the School of Pharmacy

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Lincoln County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Lincoln County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

What high schools did they attend?

- Lincoln High School in Lincoln - 3 students
- Sylvan-Lucas Unified High Schl in Sylvan Grove - 1 student

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Lincoln County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Linn County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Linn County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 31 students from Linn County:

• 19 undergraduate
• 12 graduate

KU students from Linn County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $128,987 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 19 Linn County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

• $45,243 in Pell and other federal grants
• $17,010 in institutional grants
• $39,484 in institutional scholarships
• $3,000 in state scholarships and grants
• $24,250 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Linn County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

• 15 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
• 6 students in the School of Engineering
• 3 students in the School of Education
• 3 students in the School of Pharmacy
• 2 students in the School of Health Professions
• 1 student in the School of Business
• 1 student in the School of Medicine
• 1 student in the School of Social Welfare

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Linn County; some students included in more than one county report. Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence. Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Linn County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

What high schools did they attend?

- Prairie View High School in La Cygne - 20 students
- Pleasanton High School in Pleasanton - 5 students
- Jayhawk Linn High School in Mound City - 3 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Linn County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Logan County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Logan County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 10 students from Logan County:

  • 10 undergraduate

KU students from Logan County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $48,290 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 7 Logan County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

  • $14,040 in Pell and other federal grants
  • $13,000 in institutional scholarships
  • $2,000 in state scholarships and grants
  • $19,250 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Logan County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

  • 7 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
  • 2 students in the School of Engineering
  • 1 student in the School of Business

What high schools did they attend?

  • Oakley High School in Oakley - 10 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Logan County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Lyon County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Lyon County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 128 students from Lyon County:

- 71 undergraduate
- 57 graduate

KU students from Lyon County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $325,675 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 68 Lyon County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $117,084 in Pell and other federal grants
- $31,292 in institutional grants
- $137,494 in institutional scholarships
- $15,158 in state scholarships and grants
- $15,467 in outside or private scholarships and grants
- $9,180 in fellowships

Lyon County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 48 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 14 students in the School of Medicine
- 11 students in the School of Business
- 9 students in the School of Engineering
- 9 students in the School of Health Professions
- 8 students in the School of Education
- 5 students in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Lyon County; some students included in more than one county report. Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence. Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Lyon County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

• 5 students in the School of Nursing
• 5 students in the School of Pharmacy
• 4 students in the School of Law
• 3 students in the School of Social Welfare
• 2 students in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning
• 2 students in the School of Music

What high schools did they attend?

• Emporia Senior High School in Emporia - 72 students
• Olpe High School in Olpe - 6 students
• Hartford High School in Hartford - 4 students
• Northern Heights High School in Allen - 3 students

Lyon County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,
245 have transfer credit from Emporia State University in Emporia.
31 have transfer credit from Flint Hills Technical College in Emporia.

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Lyon County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Marion County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Marion County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 31 students from Marion County:

- 19 undergraduate
- 12 graduate

KU students from Marion County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $102,292 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 17 Marion County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $39,340 in Pell and other federal grants
- $15,952 in institutional grants
- $29,580 in institutional scholarships
- $7,018 in state scholarships and grants
- $6,342 in outside or private scholarships and grants
- $4,060 in athletic grants

Marion County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 12 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 5 students in the School of Medicine
- 3 students in the School of Social Welfare
- 2 students in the School of Nursing
- 2 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 1 student in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning
- 1 student in the School of Education

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Marion County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Marion County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 1 student in the School of Health Professions
- 1 student in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
- 1 student in the School of Law
- 1 student in the School of Music

What high schools did they attend?

- Marion High School in Marion - 9 students
- Hillsboro High School in Hillsboro - 7 students
- Peabody-Burns High School in Peabody - 6 students
- Goessel High School in Goessel - 2 students

Marion County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,
30 have transfer credit from Tabor College in Hillsboro.

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Marion County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Marshall County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Marshall County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 33 students from Marshall County:

- 25 undergraduate
- 8 graduate

KU students from Marshall County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $128,625 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 18 Marshall County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $40,174 in Pell and other federal grants
- $6,724 in institutional grants
- $55,000 in institutional scholarships
- $26,227 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Marshall County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 12 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 5 students in the School of Medicine
- 4 students in the School of Engineering
- 4 students in the School of Health Professions
- 3 students in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning
- 2 students in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
- 1 student in the School of Education
- 1 student in the School of Law
- 1 student in the School of Nursing

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Marshall County; some students included in more than one county report. Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence. Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Marshall County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

What high schools did they attend?

- Marysville High School in Marysville - 19 students
- Axtell Public School in Axtell - 4 students
- Frankfort High School in Frankfort - 2 students
- Valley Heights Jr-Sr High Sch in Blue Rapids - 2 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Marshall County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from McPherson County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from McPherson County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 110 students from McPherson County:

- 74 undergraduate
- 36 graduate

KU students from McPherson County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $357,118 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 63 McPherson County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $82,812 in Pell and other federal grants
- $42,807 in institutional grants
- $180,749 in institutional scholarships
- $14,000 in state scholarships and grants
- $36,750 in outside or private scholarships and grants

McPherson County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 46 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 12 students in the School of Medicine
- 11 students in the School of Engineering
- 10 students in the School of Business
- 5 students in the School of Education
- 5 students in the School of Health Professions
- 5 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 4 students in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in McPherson County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from McPherson County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 4 students in the School of Law
- 4 students in the School of Nursing
- 3 students in the School of Social Welfare
- 1 student in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
- 1 student in the School of Music

What high schools did they attend?

- McPherson High School in McPherson - 46 students
- Smoky Valley High School in Lindsborg - 23 students
- Inman High School in Inman - 7 students
- Moundridge High School in Moundridge - 4 students
- Canton-Galva High School in Canton - 3 students

McPherson County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,

44 have transfer credit from Central Christian College in McPherson.
35 have transfer credit from Bethany College Kansas in Lindsborg.
16 have transfer credit from McPherson College in McPherson.

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in McPherson County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Meade County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Meade County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 14 students from Meade County:

- 11 undergraduate
- 3 graduate

KU students from Meade County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $39,189 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 8 Meade County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $12,660 in Pell and other federal grants
- $3,600 in institutional grants
- $20,929 in institutional scholarships
- $2,000 in state scholarships and grants

Meade County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 5 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 2 students in the School of Business
- 2 students in the School of Education
- 2 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 1 student in the School of Medicine
- 1 student in the School of Music
- 1 student in the School of Social Welfare

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Meade County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Meade County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

What high schools did they attend?

- Meade High School in Meade - 8 students
- Fowler High School in Fowler - 2 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Meade County; some students included in more than one county report. Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence. Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Miami County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Miami County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 215 students from Miami County:

• 182 undergraduate
• 33 graduate

KU students from Miami County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $513,024 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 114 Miami County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

• $207,165 in Pell and other federal grants
• $41,620 in institutional grants
• $147,451 in institutional scholarships
• $33,016 in state scholarships and grants
• $47,235 in outside or private scholarships and grants
• $6,866 in fellowships
• $29,671 in athletic grants

Miami County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

• 114 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
• 25 students in the School of Engineering
• 17 students in the School of Business
• 17 students in the School of Education
• 7 students in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning
• 7 students in the School of Medicine

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Miami County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Miami County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 7 students in the School of Nursing
- 7 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 5 students in the School of Social Welfare
- 3 students in the School of Health Professions
- 3 students in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
- 2 students in the School of Music

What high schools did they attend?

- Paola High School in Paola - 72 students
- Louisburg High School in Louisburg - 52 students
- Osawatomie Senior High School in Osawatomie - 22 students
- Peoria Street Learning Center in Louisburg - 3 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Miami County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Mitchell County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Mitchell County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 19 students from Mitchell County:

- 10 undergraduate
- 9 graduate

KU students from Mitchell County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $65,071 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 9 Mitchell County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $12,741 in Pell and other federal grants
- $44,106 in institutional scholarships
- $2,000 in state scholarships and grants
- $6,000 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Mitchell County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 6 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 3 students in the School of Health Professions
- 2 students in the School of Education
- 2 students in the School of Medicine
- 1 student in the School of Business
- 1 student in the School of Engineering
- 1 student in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
- 1 student in the School of Pharmacy

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Mitchell County; some students included in more than one county report. Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence. Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Mitchell County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

What high schools did they attend?

- Beloit Jr-Sr High School in Beloit - 15 students
- Saint Johns School in Beloit - 2 students
- North Beloit High School in Beloit - 1 student

Mitchell County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,

28 have transfer credit from North Central Kansas Tech Coll in Beloit.

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Mitchell County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Montgomery County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Montgomery County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 90 students from Montgomery County:

- 70 undergraduate
- 20 graduate

KU students from Montgomery County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $238,779 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 49 Montgomery County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $113,524 in Pell and other federal grants
- $30,859 in institutional grants
- $76,063 in institutional scholarships
- $14,103 in state scholarships and grants
- $4,230 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Montgomery County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 46 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 12 students in the School of Engineering
- 5 students in the School of Law
- 4 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 3 students in the School of Business
- 3 students in the School of Education
- 3 students in the School of Health Professions
- 3 students in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Montgomery County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Montgomery County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 3 students in the School of Medicine
- 3 students in the School of Social Welfare
- 2 students in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning
- 2 students in the School of Nursing

What high schools did they attend?

- Independence Sr High School in Independence - 38 students
- Field Kindley Memorial High Sc in Coffeyville - 24 students
- Caney Valley High School in Caney - 6 students
- Cherryvale Senior High School in Cherryvale - 6 students

Montgomery County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,
114 have transfer credit from Independence Community College in Independence.
67 have transfer credit from Coffeyville Community College in Coffeyville.

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Montgomery County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
KU welcomes students from Morris County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 15 students from Morris County:

- 7 undergraduate
- 8 graduate

KU students from Morris County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $41,902 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 9 Morris County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $15,974 in Pell and other federal grants
- $3,228 in institutional grants
- $22,200 in institutional scholarships

Morris County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 6 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 6 students in the School of Medicine
- 1 student in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning
- 1 student in the School of Engineering
- 1 student in the School of Health Professions

What high schools did they attend?

- Council Grove High School in Council Grove - 13 students
Students from Morton County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Morton County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 7 students from Morton County:

- 6 undergraduate
- 1 graduate

KU students from Morton County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $46,056 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 5 Morton County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $17,690 in Pell and other federal grants
- $7,940 in institutional grants
- $17,500 in institutional scholarships
- $1,000 in state scholarships and grants
- $1,926 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Morton County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 5 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 1 student in the School of Engineering
- 1 student in the School of Social Welfare

What high schools did they attend?

- Elkhart High School in Elkhart - 5 students
- Rolla High School in Rolla - 2 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Morton County; some students included in more than one county report. Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence. Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Morton County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Morton County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
KU welcomes students from Nemaha County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 49 students from Nemaha County:

- 25 undergraduate
- 24 graduate

KU students from Nemaha County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $98,935 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 24 Nemaha County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $33,720 in Pell and other federal grants
- $12,398 in institutional grants
- $36,650 in institutional scholarships
- $3,500 in state scholarships and grants
- $12,300 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Nemaha County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 19 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 8 students in the School of Medicine
- 6 students in the School of Health Professions
- 4 students in the School of Education
- 4 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 2 students in the School of Engineering
- 2 students in the School of Social Welfare
- 1 student in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Nemaha County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Nemaha County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 1 student in the School of Law
- 1 student in the School of Nursing

What high schools did they attend?

- Nemaha Central High School in Seneca - 14 students
- Sabetha High School in Sabetha - 14 students
- Centralia High School in Centralia - 5 students
- Bern High School in Bern - 3 students
- B & B High School in Baileyville - 2 students
- Wetmore High School in Wetmore - 2 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Nemaha County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Neosho County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Neosho County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 56 students from Neosho County:

- 49 undergraduate
- 7 graduate

KU students from Neosho County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $247,674 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 35 Neosho County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $101,578 in Pell and other federal grants
- $25,934 in institutional grants
- $88,450 in institutional scholarships
- $13,562 in state scholarships and grants
- $18,150 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Neosho County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 37 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 6 students in the School of Engineering
- 3 students in the School of Education
- 2 students in the School of Business
- 2 students in the School of Health Professions
- 2 students in the School of Medicine
- 2 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 1 student in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Neosho County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Neosho County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

• 1 student in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
• 1 student in the School of Nursing

What high schools did they attend?

• Chanute Senior High School in Chanute - 31 students
• Erie High School in Erie - 7 students
• Saint Paul High School in St Paul - 6 students
• Chanute Christian Academy in Chanute - 1 student

Neosho County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,

575 have transfer credit from Neosho County Cmty College in Chanute.

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Neosho County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
KU welcomes students from Ness County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 10 students from Ness County:

- 7 undergraduate
- 3 graduate

KU students from Ness County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $25,580 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 8 Ness County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $5,080 in Pell and other federal grants
- $5,400 in institutional grants
- $10,550 in institutional scholarships
- $1,000 in state scholarships and grants
- $3,550 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Ness County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 5 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 3 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 2 students in the School of Business

What high schools did they attend?

- Ness City High School in Ness City - 8 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Ness County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Ness County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

• Bazine High School in Bazine - 1 student
• Western Plains High School in Ransom - 1 student

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Ness County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
KU welcomes students from Norton County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 18 students from Norton County:

- 14 undergraduate
- 4 graduate

KU students from Norton County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $51,506 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 11 Norton County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $1,580 in Pell and other federal grants
- $2,404 in institutional grants
- $40,647 in institutional scholarships
- $2,000 in state scholarships and grants
- $4,875 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Norton County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 10 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 2 students in the School of Business
- 2 students in the School of Medicine
- 2 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 1 student in the School of Nursing
- 1 student in the School of Social Welfare

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Norton County; some students included in more than one county report. Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence. Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
What high schools did they attend?

- Norton High School in Norton - 15 students
- Northern Valley High School in Almena - 1 student
Students from Osage County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Osage County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 87 students from Osage County:

- 63 undergraduate
- 24 graduate

KU students from Osage County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $268,930 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 50 Osage County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $117,488 in Pell and other federal grants
- $27,952 in institutional grants
- $78,119 in institutional scholarships
- $20,041 in state scholarships and grants
- $22,425 in outside or private scholarships and grants
- $2,904 in fellowships

Osage County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 43 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 10 students in the School of Engineering
- 8 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 7 students in the School of Education
- 5 students in the School of Medicine
- 5 students in the School of Nursing
- 3 students in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Osage County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Osage County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 2 students in the School of Business
- 2 students in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
- 2 students in the School of Law
- 1 student in the School of Health Professions

What high schools did they attend?

- Santa Fe Trail High School in Carbondale - 28 students
- Osage City High School in Osage City - 24 students
- Lyndon High School in Lyndon - 8 students
- Burlingame High School in Burlingame - 4 students
- Marais Des Cygnes Valley HS in Melvern - 4 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Osage County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Osborne County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Osborne County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 22 students from Osborne County:

- 15 undergraduate
- 7 graduate

KU students from Osborne County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $74,884 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 16 Osborne County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $28,430 in Pell and other federal grants
- $14,340 in institutional grants
- $3,500 in institutional scholarships
- $2,000 in state scholarships and grants
- $26,278 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Osborne County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 7 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 3 students in the School of Medicine
- 2 students in the School of Business
- 2 students in the School of Education
- 2 students in the School of Engineering
- 2 students in the School of Health Professions
- 1 student in the School of Pharmacy
- 1 student in the School of Social Welfare

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Osborne County; some students included in more than one county report. Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence. Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Osborne County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

What high schools did they attend?

- Osborne High School in Osborne - 10 students
- Lakeside High School in Downs - 4 students
- Natoma High School in Natoma - 2 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Osborne County; some students included in more than one county report. Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence. Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Ottawa County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Ottawa County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 23 students from Ottawa County:

- 17 undergraduate
- 6 graduate

KU students from Ottawa County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $87,776 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 14 Ottawa County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $30,025 in Pell and other federal grants
- $6,874 in institutional grants
- $37,500 in institutional scholarships
- $3,000 in state scholarships and grants
- $10,377 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Ottawa County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 9 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 3 students in the School of Business
- 3 students in the School of Medicine
- 2 students in the School of Education
- 2 students in the School of Engineering
- 1 student in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning
- 1 student in the School of Health Professions

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Ottawa County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Ottawa County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 1 student in the School of Pharmacy
- 1 student in the School of Social Welfare

What high schools did they attend?

- Bennington High School in Bennington - 11 students
- Minneapolis High School in Minneapolis - 9 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Ottawa County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Pawnee County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Pawnee County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 27 students from Pawnee County:

- 18 undergraduate
- 9 graduate

KU students from Pawnee County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $92,364 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 16 Pawnee County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $26,725 in Pell and other federal grants
- $23,992 in institutional grants
- $30,147 in institutional scholarships
- $2,000 in state scholarships and grants
- $9,500 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Pawnee County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 14 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 5 students in the School of Medicine
- 3 students in the School of Business
- 1 student in the School of Education
- 1 student in the School of Engineering
- 1 student in the School of Health Professions
- 1 student in the School of Nursing
- 1 student in the School of Pharmacy

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Pawnee County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Pawnee County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

What high schools did they attend?

- Larned High School in Larned - 17 students
- Pawnee Heights High School in Rozel - 3 students
- West Side High School in Larned - 1 student

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Pawnee County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Phillips County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Phillips County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 13 students from Phillips County:

- 11 undergraduate
- 2 graduate

KU students from Phillips County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $110,745 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 12 Phillips County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $19,170 in Pell and other federal grants
- $13,745 in institutional grants
- $50,856 in institutional scholarships
- $2,000 in state scholarships and grants
- $24,974 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Phillips County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 9 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 1 student in the School of Education
- 1 student in the School of Engineering
- 1 student in the School of Medicine
- 1 student in the School of Pharmacy

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Phillips County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
What high schools did they attend?

- Phillipsburg High School in Phillipsburg - 8 students
- Logan High School in Logan - 1 student
Students from Pottawatomie County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Pottawatomie County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 69 students from Pottawatomie County:

- 46 undergraduate
- 23 graduate

KU students from Pottawatomie County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $221,114 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 40 Pottawatomie County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $91,578 in Pell and other federal grants
- $32,520 in institutional grants
- $67,895 in institutional scholarships
- $18,834 in state scholarships and grants
- $10,287 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Pottawatomie County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 30 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 7 students in the School of Business
- 6 students in the School of Engineering
- 6 students in the School of Nursing
- 5 students in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning
- 4 students in the School of Medicine
- 3 students in the School of Health Professions
- 3 students in the School of Law

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Pottawatomie County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Pottawatomie County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 2 students in the School of Education
- 2 students in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
- 2 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 1 student in the School of Music

What high schools did they attend?

- Wamego High School in Wamego - 31 students
- Onaga High School in Onaga - 9 students
- Rock Creek Jr-Sr High School in St George - 5 students
- Saint Marys High School in St Marys - 4 students
- Saint Marys Academy in St Marys - 3 students

Pottawatomie County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,
- 2 have transfer credit from St Mary's College Kansas in St Marys.
Students from Pratt County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Pratt County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 18 students from Pratt County:

- 13 undergraduate
- 5 graduate

KU students from Pratt County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $43,840 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 11 Pratt County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $5,617 in Pell and other federal grants
- $10,798 in institutional grants
- $23,500 in institutional scholarships
- $2,000 in state scholarships and grants
- $1,925 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Pratt County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 9 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 3 students in the School of Nursing
- 2 students in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
- 2 students in the School of Law
- 2 students in the School of Social Welfare
- 1 student in the School of Education
- 1 student in the School of Medicine

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Pratt County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Pratt County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

What high schools did they attend?

- Pratt High School in Pratt - 13 students
- Skyline High School in Pratt - 1 student

Pratt County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,

102 have transfer credit from Pratt Community College in Pratt.
Students from Rawlins County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Rawlins County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 4 students from Rawlins County:

• 1 undergraduate
• 3 graduate

KU students from Rawlins County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $5,834 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to Rawlins County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

• $5,730 in Pell and other federal grants

Rawlins County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

• 1 student in the School of Education
• 1 student in the School of Medicine
• 1 student in the School of Nursing
• 1 student in the School of Social Welfare

What high schools did they attend?

• Rawlins High School in Atwood - 3 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Rawlins County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Reno County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Reno County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 232 students from Reno County:

- 159 undergraduate
- 73 graduate

KU students from Reno County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $711,404 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 140 Reno County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $216,484 in Pell and other federal grants
- $82,348 in institutional grants
- $315,295 in institutional scholarships
- $29,350 in state scholarships and grants
- $47,281 in outside or private scholarships and grants
- $1,390 in fellowships
- $19,256 in athletic grants

Reno County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 103 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 32 students in the School of Medicine
- 22 students in the School of Engineering
- 22 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 12 students in the School of Business
- 10 students in the School of Education

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Reno County; some students included in more than one county report. Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence. Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Reno County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 10 students in the School of Social Welfare
- 8 students in the School of Nursing
- 5 students in the School of Health Professions
- 5 students in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
- 4 students in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning
- 3 students in the School of Law
- 2 students in the School of Music

What high schools did they attend?

- Hutchinson Senior High School in Hutchinson - 100 students
- Buhler High School in Buhler - 51 students
- Trinity Catholic High School in Hutchinson - 20 students
- Haven High School in Haven - 14 students
- Fairfield High School in Turon - 7 students
- Nickerson High School in Nickerson - 6 students
- Central Christian High School in Hutchinson - 1 student
- Pilgrim Christian School in Hutchinson - 1 student
- Pretty Prairie High School in Pretty Prairie - 1 student

Reno County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,
522 have transfer credit from Hutchinson Community College in Hutchinson.

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Reno County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Republic County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Republic County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 12 students from Republic County:

- 8 undergraduate
- 4 graduate

KU students from Republic County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $47,515 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 5 Republic County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $15,305 in Pell and other federal grants
- $12,460 in institutional grants
- $16,750 in institutional scholarships
- $1,000 in state scholarships and grants
- $2,000 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Republic County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 5 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 2 students in the School of Business
- 2 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 1 student in the School of Medicine
- 1 student in the School of Nursing

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Republic County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
What high schools did they attend?

- Republic County High School in Belleville - 7 students
- Pike Valley High School in Scandia - 2 students
Students from Rice County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Rice County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 21 students from Rice County:

- 11 undergraduate
- 10 graduate

KU students from Rice County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $192,282 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 17 Rice County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $20,719 in Pell and other federal grants
- $13,548 in institutional grants
- $21,714 in institutional scholarships
- $5,257 in state scholarships and grants
- $131,044 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Rice County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 8 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 6 students in the School of Medicine
- 3 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 2 students in the School of Nursing
- 1 student in the School of Education
- 1 student in the School of Engineering
- 1 student in the School of Social Welfare

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Rice County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
What high schools did they attend?

- Lyons High School in Lyons - 6 students
- Little River High School in Little River - 4 students
- Sterling High School in Sterling - 4 students
- Quivira Heights High School in Bushton - 2 students

Rice County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,
15 have transfer credit from Sterling College Kansas in Sterling.

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Rice County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Riley County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Riley County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 297 students from Riley County:

- 149 undergraduate
- 148 graduate

KU students from Riley County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $902,463 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 141 Riley County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $201,382 in Pell and other federal grants
- $94,717 in institutional grants
- $399,673 in institutional scholarships
- $47,166 in state scholarships and grants
- $108,871 in outside or private scholarships and grants
- $41,250 in fellowships
- $9,405 in athletic grants

Riley County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 118 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 38 students in the School of Health Professions
- 33 students in the School of Medicine
- 23 students in the School of Engineering
- 20 students in the School of Social Welfare
- 13 students in the School of Nursing

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Riley County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Riley County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 12 students in the School of Education
- 10 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 9 students in the School of Business
- 9 students in the School of Law
- 5 students in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
- 3 students in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning
- 3 students in the School of Music

What high schools did they attend?

- Manhattan High School in Manhattan - 136 students
- Riley County High School in Riley - 7 students
- Blue Valley High School in Randolph - 1 student
- Flint Hills Christian School in Manhattan - 1 student
- iQ Academy Kansas in Manhattan - 1 student

Riley County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,
- 1,061 have transfer credit from Kansas State Univ Manhattan in Manhattan.
- 17 have transfer credit from Manhattan Area Technical Coll in Manhattan.
- 14 have transfer credit from Manhattan Christian College in Manhattan.

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Riley County; some students included in more than one county report. Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence. Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
KU welcomes students from Rooks County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 12 students from Rooks County:

- 6 undergraduate
- 6 graduate

KU students from Rooks County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $142,954 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 8 Rooks County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $8,260 in Pell and other federal grants
- $8,444 in institutional grants
- $121,500 in institutional scholarships
- $4,750 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Rooks County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 4 students in the School of Medicine
- 2 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 1 student in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 1 student in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning
- 1 student in the School of Business
- 1 student in the School of Education
- 1 student in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
- 1 student in the School of Music

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Rooks County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Rooks County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

What high schools did they attend?

- Plainville High School in Plainville - 4 students
- Stockton High School in Stockton - 4 students
- Palco High School in Palco - 1 student
Students from Rush County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Rush County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 7 students from Rush County:

- 4 undergraduate
- 3 graduate

KU students from Rush County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $16,779 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 5 Rush County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $4,080 in Pell and other federal grants
- $1,800 in institutional grants
- $9,399 in institutional scholarships
- $1,500 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Rush County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 2 students in the School of Engineering
- 2 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 1 student in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 1 student in the School of Business
- 1 student in the School of Medicine
- 1 student in the School of Nursing

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Rush County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
What high schools did they attend?

- Otis-Bison Senior High School in Otis - 4 students
- Lacrosse High School in La Crosse - 1 student
KU welcomes students from Russell County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 7 students from Russell County:

- 3 undergraduate
- 4 graduate

KU students from Russell County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $19,400 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 5 Russell County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $1,800 in institutional grants
- $14,800 in institutional scholarships
- $2,800 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Russell County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 2 students in the School of Engineering
- 2 students in the School of Health Professions
- 1 student in the School of Business
- 1 student in the School of Medicine
- 1 student in the School of Pharmacy

What high schools did they attend?

- Russell High School in Russell - 7 students
Students from Saline County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Saline County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 211 students from Saline County:

- 157 undergraduate
- 54 graduate

KU students from Saline County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $834,507 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 130 Saline County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $236,868 in Pell and other federal grants
- $79,279 in institutional grants
- $339,975 in institutional scholarships
- $48,288 in state scholarships and grants
- $130,097 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Saline County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 119 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 23 students in the School of Medicine
- 15 students in the School of Business
- 15 students in the School of Engineering
- 11 students in the School of Education
- 11 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 6 students in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning
- 6 students in the School of Nursing

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Saline County; some students included in more than one county report. Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence. Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Saline County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 4 students in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
- 3 students in the School of Health Professions
- 2 students in the School of Law
- 2 students in the School of Music
- 2 students in the School of Social Welfare

What high schools did they attend?

- Salina High School Central in Salina - 89 students
- Salina High School South in Salina - 56 students
- Sacred Heart Jr-Sr High School in Salina - 27 students
- Southeast Saline Senior HS in Gypsum - 8 students
- Ell-Saline High School in Brookville - 5 students
- Saint Johns Military School in Salina - 1 student

Saline County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,
- 68 have transfer credit from Kansas Wesleyan University in Salina.
- 28 have transfer credit from Kansas State Univ Salina in Salina.
- 8 have transfer credit from Brown Mackie College in Salina.
- 2 have transfer credit from Marymount College Kansas in Salina.

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Saline County; some students included in more than one county report. Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence. Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Scott County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Scott County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 12 students from Scott County:

- 8 undergraduate
- 4 graduate

KU students from Scott County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $32,680 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 6 Scott County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $5,860 in Pell and other federal grants
- $6,620 in institutional grants
- $10,500 in institutional scholarships
- $1,000 in state scholarships and grants
- $8,700 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Scott County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 3 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 2 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 2 students in the School of Medicine
- 1 student in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning
- 1 student in the School of Business
- 1 student in the School of Engineering
- 1 student in the School of Health Professions
- 1 student in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Scott County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Scott County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

What high schools did they attend?

- Scott Community High School in Scott City - 10 students
KU welcomes students from Sedgwick County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 1,901 students from Sedgwick County:

- 1,379 undergraduate
- 522 graduate

KU students from Sedgwick County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $5,247,586 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 964 Sedgwick County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $1,602,346 in Pell and other federal grants
- $687,248 in institutional grants
- $2,185,459 in institutional scholarships
- $227,647 in state scholarships and grants
- $363,738 in outside or private scholarships and grants
- $46,667 in fellowships
- $134,482 in athletic grants

Sedgwick County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 894 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 239 students in the School of Medicine
- 212 students in the School of Engineering
- 127 students in the School of Business
- 109 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 77 students in the School of Education

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Sedgwick County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Sedgwick County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 63 students in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
- 56 students in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning
- 47 students in the School of Nursing
- 33 students in the School of Law
- 29 students in the School of Social Welfare
- 27 students in the School of Health Professions
- 15 students in the School of Music

What high schools did they attend?

- Wichita East High School in Wichita - 177 students
- Kapaun Mount Carmel High Sch in Wichita - 171 students
- Maize High School in Maize - 166 students
- Derby High School in Derby - 129 students
- Bishop Carroll High School in Wichita - 109 students
- Wichita Southeast High School in Wichita - 72 students
- Wichita Heights High School in Wichita - 71 students
- Independent High School in Wichita - 69 students
- Wichita Northwest High School in Wichita - 62 students
- Wichita Collegiate School in Wichita - 56 students
- Goddard Senior High School in Goddard - 55 students
- Valley Center High School in Valley Center - 40 students
- Wichita North High School in Wichita - 39 students
- Northeast Magnet School in Wichita - 35 students
- Maize South High School in Wichita - 29 students
- Trinity Academy in Wichita - 26 students
- Mulvane High School in Mulvane - 25 students
- Andale High School in Andale - 23 students
- Clearwater High School in Clearwater - 23 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Sedgwick County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Sedgwick County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- Campus High School in Wichita - 20 students
- Wichita South High School in Wichita - 19 students
- Eisenhower High School in Goddard - 17 students
- Cheney High School in Cheney - 13 students
- Garden Plain High School in Garden Plain - 6 students
- Wichita West High School in Wichita - 6 students
- Sunrise Christian Academy in Wichita - 4 students
- Classical School of Wichita in Wichita - 3 students
- Metro-Meridian Alter High Sch in Wichita - 2 students
- Northfield School Liberal Arts in Wichita - 2 students
- Wichita Eschool in Wichita - 2 students
- Haysville Alternative High Sch in Haysville - 1 student
- Wichita Area Technical College in Wichita - 1 student
- Wichita Metro High School in Wichita - 1 student

Sedgwick County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,

- 856 have transfer credit from Wichita State University in Wichita.
- 606 have transfer credit from Newman University in Wichita.
- 188 have transfer credit from Friends University in Wichita.
- 59 have transfer credit from Wichita Area Technical College in Wichita.
- 2 have transfer credit from Wichita Technical Institute in Wichita.

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Sedgwick County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Seward County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Seward County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 52 students from Seward County:

- 43 undergraduate
- 9 graduate

KU students from Seward County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $126,436 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 29 Seward County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $51,660 in Pell and other federal grants
- $12,220 in institutional grants
- $40,645 in institutional scholarships
- $17,710 in state scholarships and grants
- $4,200 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Seward County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 26 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 4 students in the School of Business
- 4 students in the School of Education
- 4 students in the School of Engineering
- 3 students in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning
- 2 students in the School of Law
- 2 students in the School of Medicine
- 2 students in the School of Nursing

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Seward County; some students included in more than one county report.

Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.

Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.

Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Seward County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 1 student in the School of Health Professions
- 1 student in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
- 1 student in the School of Music
- 1 student in the School of Social Welfare

What high schools did they attend?

- Liberal High School in Liberal - 41 students
- Southwestern Heights High Sch in Kismet - 5 students

Seward County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,

- 102 have transfer credit from Seward County Community Coll in Liberal.
- 1 has transfer credit from Southwest Kansas Technical Sch in Liberal.

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Seward County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Shawnee County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Shawnee County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 1,108 students from Shawnee County:

- 827 undergraduate
- 281 graduate

KU students from Shawnee County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $2,788,282 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 533 Shawnee County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $1,072,425 in Pell and other federal grants
- $360,916 in institutional grants
- $1,020,530 in institutional scholarships
- $148,373 in state scholarships and grants
- $134,906 in outside or private scholarships and grants
- $2,630 in fellowships
- $48,502 in athletic grants

Shawnee County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 600 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 123 students in the School of Engineering
- 70 students in the School of Education
- 63 students in the School of Business
- 62 students in the School of Medicine
- 32 students in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Shawnee County; some students included in more than one county report. Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence. Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Shawnee County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

• 28 students in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning
• 24 students in the School of Nursing
• 23 students in the School of Pharmacy
• 21 students in the School of Social Welfare
• 20 students in the School of Health Professions
• 16 students in the School of Music
• 11 students in the School of Law

What high schools did they attend?

• Washburn Rural High School in Topeka - 295 students
• Topeka High School in Topeka - 161 students
• Shawnee Heights Sr High School in Tecumseh - 124 students
• Seaman High School in Topeka - 89 students
• Topeka West High School in Topeka - 88 students
• Hayden High School in Topeka - 82 students
• Silver Lake Jr/Sr High School in Silver Lake - 23 students
• Highland Park High School in Topeka - 17 students
• Cair Paravel-Latin School in Topeka - 14 students
• Rossville High School in Rossville - 9 students
• Cornerstone Family School in Topeka - 1 student
• Heritage Christian High School in Topeka - 1 student
• Hope Street Academy in Topeka - 1 student
• Washburn Rural Alternative HS in Topeka - 1 student

Shawnee County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,

658 have transfer credit from Washburn University in Topeka.

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Shawnee County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Shawnee County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

18 have transfer credit from Washburn Institute Technology in Topeka.
2 have transfer credit from Topeka Technical College in Topeka.
1 has transfer credit from Bryan University - Topeka in Topeka.
1 has transfer credit from Kaw Valley State Bank Trust Department in Topeka.
1 has transfer credit from Stormont-Vail Schl of Nursing in Topeka.

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Shawnee County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Sheridan County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Sheridan County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 3 students from Sheridan County:

- 1 undergraduate
- 2 graduate

KU students from Sheridan County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $29,200 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to Sheridan County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $1,800 in institutional grants
- $27,400 in institutional scholarships

Sheridan County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 1 student in the School of Business
- 1 student in the School of Medicine
- 1 student in the School of Pharmacy

What high schools did they attend?

- Hoxie High School in Hoxie - 2 students
Students from Sherman County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Sherman County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 10 students from Sherman County:

- 5 undergraduate
- 5 graduate

KU students from Sherman County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $38,784 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 6 Sherman County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $5,280 in Pell and other federal grants
- $24,800 in institutional scholarships
- $1,000 in state scholarships and grants
- $7,600 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Sherman County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 4 students in the School of Business
- 3 students in the School of Medicine
- 2 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 1 student in the School of Engineering

What high schools did they attend?

- Goodland High School in Goodland - 10 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Sherman County; some students included in more than one county report. Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence. Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Sherman County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

Sherman County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,
5 have transfer credit from Northwest Kansas Technical Col in Goodland.

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Sherman County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Smith County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Smith County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 13 students from Smith County:

- 7 undergraduate
- 6 graduate

KU students from Smith County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $92,823 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 9 Smith County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $10,157 in Pell and other federal grants
- $13,640 in institutional grants
- $27,500 in institutional scholarships
- $41,026 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Smith County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 8 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 2 students in the School of Engineering
- 2 students in the School of Health Professions
- 2 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 1 student in the School of Business
- 1 student in the School of Education
Students from Smith County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

What high schools did they attend?

- Smith Center Jr-Sr High School in Smith Center - 8 students
- Thunder Ridge District HS in Kensington - 3 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Smith County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Stafford County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Stafford County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 11 students from Stafford County:

- 10 undergraduate
- 1 graduate

KU students from Stafford County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $60,190 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 7 Stafford County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $25,150 in Pell and other federal grants
- $10,890 in institutional grants
- $4,000 in institutional scholarships
- $1,000 in state scholarships and grants
- $19,150 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Stafford County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 8 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 1 student in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning
- 1 student in the School of Education
- 1 student in the School of Engineering

What high schools did they attend?

- Saint John High School in St John - 5 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Stafford County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Stafford County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- Stafford High School in Stafford - 5 students
- Macksville High School in Macksville - 1 student
Students from Stanton County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Stanton County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 8 students from Stanton County:

- 5 undergraduate
- 3 graduate

KU students from Stanton County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $29,538 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 6 Stanton County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $13,984 in Pell and other federal grants
- $2,404 in institutional grants
- $8,300 in institutional scholarships
- $3,850 in state scholarships and grants
- $1,000 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Stanton County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 4 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 1 student in the School of Education
- 1 student in the School of Medicine
- 1 student in the School of Pharmacy
- 1 student in the School of Social Welfare

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Stanton County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Stanton County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

What high schools did they attend?

- Stanton County Community H S in Johnson - 7 students
Students from Stevens County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Stevens County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 8 students from Stevens County:

• 3 undergraduate
• 5 graduate

KU students from Stevens County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $26,380 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 5 Stevens County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

• $4,380 in Pell and other federal grants
• $22,000 in institutional scholarships

Stevens County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

• 3 students in the School of Pharmacy
• 2 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
• 1 student in the School of Education
• 1 student in the School of Engineering
• 1 student in the School of Medicine

What high schools did they attend?

• Hugoton High School in Hugoton - 7 students
• Moscow High School in Moscow - 1 student

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Stevens County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Sumner County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Sumner County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 45 students from Sumner County:

- 28 undergraduate
- 17 graduate

KU students from Sumner County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $104,054 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 27 Sumner County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $26,911 in Pell and other federal grants
- $19,593 in institutional grants
- $44,100 in institutional scholarships
- $13,450 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Sumner County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 16 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 8 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 7 students in the School of Medicine
- 3 students in the School of Business
- 3 students in the School of Education
- 2 students in the School of Engineering
- 1 student in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning
- 1 student in the School of Health Professions

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Sumner County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Sumner County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 1 student in the School of Nursing
- 1 student in the School of Social Welfare

What high schools did they attend?

- Wellington Senior High School in Wellington - 17 students
- Conway Springs High School in Conway Springs - 7 students
- Belle Plaine Senior High Sch in Belle Plaine - 4 students
- Oxford High School in Oxford - 1 student

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Sumner County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
KU welcomes students from Thomas County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 33 students from Thomas County:

- 27 undergraduate
- 6 graduate

KU students from Thomas County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $97,963 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 17 Thomas County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $32,593 in Pell and other federal grants
- $8,520 in institutional grants
- $43,300 in institutional scholarships
- $3,000 in state scholarships and grants
- $10,550 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Thomas County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 19 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 3 students in the School of Engineering
- 3 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 2 students in the School of Business
- 2 students in the School of Medicine
- 1 student in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning
- 1 student in the School of Education
- 1 student in the School of Health Professions

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Thomas County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Thomas County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 1 student in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
- 1 student in the School of Music
- 1 student in the School of Nursing

What high schools did they attend?

- Colby High School in Colby - 31 students
- Brewster High School in Brewster - 1 student

Thomas County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,

137 have transfer credit from Colby Community College in Colby.
Students from Trego County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Trego County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 8 students from Trego County:

- 4 undergraduate
- 4 graduate

KU students from Trego County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $10,040 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to Trego County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $2,740 in Pell and other federal grants
- $1,800 in institutional grants
- $5,000 in institutional scholarships

Trego County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 3 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 2 students in the School of Medicine
- 1 student in the School of Education
- 1 student in the School of Health Professions
- 1 student in the School of Pharmacy

What high schools did they attend?

- Trego Community High School in Wakeeney - 8 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Trego County; some students included in more than one county report. Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence. Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Wabaunsee County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Wabaunsee County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 13 students from Wabaunsee County:

- 10 undergraduate
- 3 graduate

KU students from Wabaunsee County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $28,760 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 9 Wabaunsee County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $8,810 in Pell and other federal grants
- $4,600 in institutional grants
- $9,750 in institutional scholarships
- $2,000 in state scholarships and grants
- $3,600 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Wabaunsee County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 7 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 2 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 1 student in the School of Business
- 1 student in the School of Engineering
- 1 student in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
- 1 student in the School of Medicine

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Wabaunsee County; some students included in more than one county report. Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence. Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Wabaunsee County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

What high schools did they attend?

- Wabaunsee Senior High School in Alma - 8 students
- Mission Valley High School in Eskridge - 3 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Wabaunsee County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Wallace County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Wallace County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 5 students from Wallace County:

• 3 undergraduate
• 2 graduate

KU students from Wallace County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $11,500 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to Wallace County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

• $11,500 in institutional scholarships

Wallace County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

• 3 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
• 1 student in the School of Medicine
• 1 student in the School of Nursing

What high schools did they attend?

• Wallace County High School in Sharon Springs - 4 students
• Weskan High School in Weskan - 1 student

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Wallace County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Washington County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Washington County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 7 students from Washington County:

- 4 undergraduate
- 3 graduate

KU students from Washington County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $19,234 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to Washington County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $4,380 in Pell and other federal grants
- $12,500 in institutional scholarships
- $1,000 in state scholarships and grants
- $1,250 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Washington County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 2 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 1 student in the School of Business
- 1 student in the School of Engineering
- 1 student in the School of Health Professions
- 1 student in the School of Medicine

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Washington County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Washington County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

What high schools did they attend?

- Hanover School in Hanover - 2 students
- Linn High School in Linn - 1 student
Students from Wichita County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Wichita County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 4 students from Wichita County:

- 2 undergraduate
- 2 graduate

KU students from Wichita County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $2,000 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to Wichita County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $2,000 in institutional scholarships

Wichita County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 2 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 1 student in the School of Health Professions
- 1 student in the School of Medicine

What high schools did they attend?

- Wichita County High School in Leoti - 4 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Wichita County; some students included in more than one county report. Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence. Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Wilson County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Wilson County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 36 students from Wilson County:

- 33 undergraduate
- 3 graduate

KU students from Wilson County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $196,255 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 26 Wilson County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $87,580 in Pell and other federal grants
- $34,990 in institutional grants
- $50,639 in institutional scholarships
- $7,000 in state scholarships and grants
- $16,046 in outside or private scholarships and grants

Wilson County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 24 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 4 students in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
- 3 students in the School of Engineering
- 2 students in the School of Business
- 2 students in the School of Education
- 2 students in the School of Medicine
- 1 student in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Wilson County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
What high schools did they attend?

- Neodesha High School in Neodesha - 23 students
- Fredonia High School in Fredonia - 8 students
- Altoona-Midway High School in Buffalo - 3 students
Students from Woodson County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Woodson County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 3 students from Woodson County:

- 2 undergraduate
- 1 graduate

KU students from Woodson County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $15,410 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to Woodson County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $11,610 in Pell and other federal grants
- $1,800 in institutional grants
- $2,000 in state scholarships and grants

Woodson County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 1 student in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 1 student in the School of Engineering
- 1 student in the School of Law

What high schools did they attend?

- Yates Center High School in Yates Center - 2 students

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Woodson County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Wyandotte County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

KU welcomes students from Wyandotte County.

In Fall 2014, KU has 744 students from Wyandotte County:

- 568 undergraduate
- 176 graduate

KU students from Wyandotte County have significant support in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

As of the fall census point, $2,184,630 in federal, state, institutional, and outside/private grants, scholarships, and fellowships have been awarded on all campuses to 403 Wyandotte County students for FY 2015. Included within this total:

- $1,209,146 in Pell and other federal grants
- $243,074 in institutional grants
- $435,654 in institutional scholarships
- $149,498 in state scholarships and grants
- $125,270 in outside or private scholarships and grants
- $21,988 in fellowships

Wyandotte County students pursue majors in a variety of areas.

- 405 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 66 students in the School of Engineering
- 56 students in the School of Medicine
- 39 students in the School of Nursing
- 34 students in the School of Education
- 30 students in the School of Architecture, Design and Planning
- 30 students in the School of Social Welfare

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Wyandotte County; some students included in more than one county report.
Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students.
Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence.
Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.
Students from Wyandotte County
Fall 2014
University of Kansas
All Campuses

- 29 students in the School of Business
- 19 students in the School of Health Professions
- 17 students in the School of Journalism and Mass Communications
- 12 students in the School of Pharmacy
- 5 students in the School of Law
- 5 students in the School of Music

What high schools did they attend?

- Sumner Academy Arts & Science in Kansas City - 160 students
- Piper High School in Kansas City - 73 students
- Bonner Springs High School in Bonner Springs - 63 students
- Turner High School in Kansas City - 42 students
- Washington High School in Kansas City - 28 students
- J C Harmon High School in Kansas City - 27 students
- Bishop Ward High School in Kansas City - 26 students
- Wyandotte High School in Kansas City - 18 students
- F L Schlagle High School in Kansas City - 16 students
- Christ Preparatory Academy in Kansas City - 2 students
- Muncie Christian School in Kansas City - 1 student

Wyandotte County postsecondary institutions contribute as well.

Of the Fall 2014 KU students,

- 760 have transfer credit from Kansas City Kansas Cmty Coll in Kansas City.
- 185 have transfer credit from Donnelly College in Kansas City.
- 8 have transfer credit from Kansas City KS Area Tech Schl in Kansas City.

Overall counts include students whose permanent residence or last high school attended is in Wyandotte County; some students included in more than one county report. Counts by academic unit for degree-seeking majors only. High school data included when available for both undergrad and graduate students. Other postsecondary institution counts include all KU students with transfer credit from that institution, regardless of county of residence. Source: 20th day census data, including financial aid data.